

Patience

Gilbert
&
Sullivan

Following our NODA Accolade-winning production of Silas Marner (2016), director Alison Cooper and musical director Ian Stone are reunited for Patience, Gilbert & Sullivan's gentle satire on romantic love, military pomposity, and the pretentiousness of the Victorian aesthetic movement (particularly its poets).

For evening performances, doors open at 7pm, with a bar serving wine, beer and soft drinks. On Saturday there is also a matinee at 2.30, with doors open at 2pm and hot/cold drinks available. Tickets for all performances are £12 adults, or £10 senior citizens and under-16s. Please enquire for groups of ten or more.

We now offer online booking with credit-card payment (use QR code below or visit bodswb.com), but as usual tickets may also be reserved for payment on the door - we can only accept cash or cheques with this method. To reserve, phone Sam on 01737 760330, email info@bodswb.com, or post this form to BODS, 8 Oakwood Close, Redhill RH1 4BD (SAE please if sending cheque)
